STATE of Florida,

Appellee. No. 2D10-2925. District Court of Appeal of Florida, Second District. August 25, 2011. James Marion Moorman, Public Defender, and Benjamin Eisenberg, Assistant Public Defender, Bartow, for Appellant. Pamela Jo Bondi, Attorney General, Tallahassee, and Braden P. Bevan, Assistant Attorney General, Tampa, for Appellee.

SILVER, Judge. Joshua Bullard appeals his judgment and sentence for grand theft. He argues that the sentencing court erred by enhancing his sentence under section

775.084(1)(d), Florida Statutes (2010), for the use of a firearm. We affirm, but on different grounds. In a single proceeding, Bullard pled guilty to grand theft, drug trafficking, and resisting an officer with violence. Pursuant to the plea agreement, Bullard agreed to a one-year sentence for grand theft and a four-year sentence for the drug trafficking and resisting an officer charges. The sentencing court accepted the plea agreement and imposed the *963 agreed-upon sentence. In its case summary, the court noted a sentencing recommendation under section 775.084(1)(d). The written judgment and sentence in fact lists section 775.084(1)(d) as an improper basis for an enhanced sentence, although the court had orally pronounced that Bullard would be sentenced under that statute. Nevertheless, this was error. Florida Rule of Criminal Procedure 3.170(l) requires that the "judgment and sentence shall be stated on a separate document." This requirement is
